Automated Clearing House (ACH) Credit Method

Application Form and Instructions Included

NORTH
Dakota | Job Service
Be Legendary.™

INTRODUCTION

NOTE - Effective January 1, 2018 all quarterly contribution and wage reports and payments must be submitted electronically.

Job Service North Dakota (JSND) has developed a program to accept Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax payments through electronic funds transfer (EFT). EFT reduces both the time and expense involved in generating and handling paper checks and allows for quicker application of tax payments.

EFT is a method of directing a financial institution to transfer funds from one account to another. Private business and the federal government have been using EFT technology for many years. For example, the direct deposit of employees' wages and Social Security payments are made through EFT. Many corporations also use EFT to pay their suppliers for goods and services.

The Job Service North Dakota EFT program employs the Automated Clearing House (ACH) credit transaction method, which is a national standard for the electronic transfer of funds using the ACH network.

The information contained in this program guide is designed to provide you with specific information on our EFT program. Contents include participation guidelines, registration information, payment method, tax form filing requirements, standard file and record formats, as well as an application form.

We hope you find this program guide to be a helpful resource and encourage you to become a part of the Job Service EFT program.

Note: This guide provides instructions and an application form for ACH Credit. You can also download the guide from our Internet website. The guide is in Adobe Acrobat format. Our web address is www.jobsnd.com.

PAYMENT METHOD—AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE (ACH) CREDIT

Definition. The ACH Credit method allows you to transfer funds by instructing your financial institution (technically referred to as the “Originating Depository Financial Institution”, ODFI) to debit your account and to credit the Job Service North Dakota Unemployment Insurance bank account.

Cost. You must pay any fees charged by your financial institution for ACH Credit transactions.

Record formats. In order to report your tax payment correctly, your financial institution must originate your payment using the “Cash Concentration or Disbursement” (CCD) format. Check with your financial institution to make sure they can transfer your tax payment using this record format.

How to report a payment by ACH Credit. Contact your financial institution for specific procedures regarding the electronic payment of taxes. Before your financial institution can send your payment, you must provide them with the filing information required to complete the ACH CCD records (i.e., CCD Entry Detail Record Format (shown on page 4) along with all the information that goes in these records). The record format for the CCD entry detail is included in this program guide. In order to receive Job Service North Dakota’s bank routing/transit and bank account numbers you must file your EFT application with Job Service North Dakota. We will mail or email you a confirmation notice with our bank routing transit number and our designated account number.

This ACH Credit program guide and your confirmation notice should be taken to your financial institution before submitting your first payment.

Pre-notifications (Pre-note) and tests. It is strongly recommended that taxpayers make an error-free pre-note transaction before commencing the electronic transmission of funds to Job Service North Dakota. A pre-note transaction is a zero-dollar payment in a CCD format. CCD depositors will be notified if errors are found in pre-note transaction(s) or upon request.

If you do a pre-note it must be done at least 10 calendar days before the first live EFT payment.

Zero-dollar transactions. If you owe no tax on a payment date, you should not send a transaction through the ACH network. ACH is only for tax amounts due.

Taxpayer/service provider responsibilities. Persons remitting payments electronically should maintain adequate documentation to substantiate the initiation of an electronic funds transfer for payment of tax for all electronic funds transfer payment methods.

Taxpayers and service providers who apply to remit using the ACH credit method are responsible for ensuring that their financial institution can support the ACH credit method for payments to Job Service North Dakota. Taxpayers and service providers remitting by ACH credit method are also responsible for understanding the correct usage of the software or the service they use to remit electronically and to submit payment information contained in the ACH file in the correct format.

Note: Job Service North Dakota is not responsible for instruction on the usage and reliability of the products and services of financial institutions or other companies, nor for fees charged by financial institutions, service providers and others.

Standard Procedures

Payment due date. Your payment due date will remain the same. To be considered timely, your EFT payment must be received by Job Service North Dakota's bank no later than the payment due date for the tax period. It is the taxpayer's responsibility to determine the transfer deadline required by their financial institution for acceptance of ACH credit transactions. Check with your financial institution to determine when you should initiate your payment so it will be received on time.

If a payment due date falls on a legal holiday or weekend, the tax payment must be received on the first business day after the holiday or weekend. Timely payments are based on the settlement date (the date on which the tax has been credited). Financial institution holidays in other states may vary. Make sure to check with your financial institution.

How your payment is applied. If your account has a balance due from a past quarter the current payment will be used to pay the past due amount first then the balance of the payment will be used to pay the current quarter. Payments will be applied to penalty first, and then to contributions and interest.

Corrections. If you feel an EFT payment was made in error, contact your financial institution for their correction procedures. You must also contact our EFT Coordinator at 701-328-2814. Do not attempt to reverse your transaction.

Incorrect record formats. If you remit a payment with an incorrect format, we may return your payment. A returned payment may result in it being late and thus subject to an interest charge.

Verification of timely payment. Your financial institution should provide you with verification of transferred amounts and effective dates. Job Service North Dakota will not verify receipt of routine EFT payments, but will assist in resolving payment discrepancies.

Proof of payment. If you require proof of payment, it is your responsibility to work with your financial institution to obtain verification that your funds were transferred from your account into Job Service North Dakota's Unemployment Insurance account. Your bank can supply you with a trace number that is generated for the ACH network.

Duplicate and other erroneous payments. Duplicate payments will be posted to the taxpayer's account, as will overpayments made to a valid tax account. Payments made in error will also be posted to that account. Other erroneous payments will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Refunds and reversals. Refunds will not be issued electronically through the ACH network. No reversals will be allowed.

Record keeping requirements. Persons remitting electronically should maintain documentation to substantiate the initiation of an electronic funds transfer for payment of the tax. Mandatory record keeping requirements for EFT remitters are the same as stated for other payment methods.

FILING YOUR EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTION AND WAGE REPORTS

Quarterly Contribution and Wage Reports must be submitted using electronic reporting methods and sent by the specified due date.
